

9/23/15 - classwork examples

Today we discussed the difference between a 3rd grade sentence and a first or second grade sentence. Then we brainstormed some examples. Finally, we identified the subjects and predicates of these sentences.

The cat was cute. (First grade sentence)

The black cat was cute. (second grade sentence)

The tiny black cat went to the park.

The big, fat, black cat walked by ten cars and coughed up a hairball.

The little boy played with his toy car in the house.

The man by the graveyard is a fat ghost.

My big, fat cat coughed up a hairball on my foot.
